

THE IMPACT OF INSTITUTIONAL ARBITRATION IN AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT – CELEBRATING THE DELIVERY OF MODERN CASE MANAGEMENT TO THE AFRICAN CONTINENT.

ABOUT KIGALI INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTER

Rwanda continues to make considerable improvements to its business environment and investment climate and being the first greenest destination in Africa. Rwanda is the most reformed country in the world and the second best destination for doing business in Africa according to the World Bank's 'Ease of doing business report' (2020). With such conducive business environment, commercial disputes are inevitable.

Kigali International Arbitration Centre (KIAC) was established in 2010 as an independent body to provide infrastructure for quality services in arbitration and other ADR mechanisms. Launched officially in May 2012, KIAC started in April 2013 to administer cases under its arbitration rules after continuous sensitization campaign in Rwanda and abroad on the use of arbitration and KIAC standards Arbitration clauses. The KIAC Arbitration Rules (2012) are a modern set of arbitration rules, which provisions are consistent with international best practices. Currently KIAC registered more than 200 cases.

ABOUT 10 YEARS ANNIVERSARY OF KIAC

The year 2022 marks the 10th Anniversary of the Kigali International Arbitration Center (KIAC). This event is an opportunity to celebrate KIAC's Arbitration cases out of which 40% are international cases with parties from Burundi, China, Ethiopia, Egypt, France, India, Italy, Kenya, Korea, Nigeria, Pakistan, South Africa, South Korea, Singapore, Rwanda, Spain, Switzerland, Tanzania, Turkey, Uganda, USA, Zambia

The Anniversary will be celebrated by a conference where the international Arbitration community will gather in Kigali to discuss the hot topics shaping the future of international Arbitration in one of the major African Arbitral institutions. Furthermore, the event will be an opportunity to share the role of courts in support of Arbitration in Rwanda where none of KIAC Awards has never been set aside.
