

INTERNATIONAL LAW ASSOCIATION
AMERICAN BRANCH
EST. 1922

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE OF INVESTOR-STATE DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

ISDS is undertaking a profound reform process which has the potential of changing the entire system of how we resolve investment disputes. The reform involves many efforts and organizations, including Working Group III at UNCITRAL, ICSID, and the Energy Charter Secretariat. The speakers in this panel will discuss the reform process and the specific proposals, and the likelihood of their success. Is the proposed reform fit for purpose?

Aurélia Antonietti,
Senior Legal Adviser, ICSID

Chiara Giorgetti
Professor, University of Richmond

Karin L. Kizer
Attorney Adviser, US
Department of State

Jae Sung Lee
Senior Legal Officer, Secretary of Working Group III, UNCITRAL

Catharine Titi
Research Associate Professor,
National Centre for Scientific Research,
University Paris II Panthéon-Assas

André von Walter
Head of the Economic and Trade Section, Delegation of the European Union to Canada

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20 | 10:00 AM WASHINGTON, DC (EDT)

ZOOM: HTTPS://URICHMOND.ZOOM.US/J/81528106505