The Republic of Korea’s Comments on Working Paper #4

The Republic of Korea ("Korea") sincerely appreciates the incredible leadership and effort put forth by the Secretariat in the ICSID Rule Amendment process during the COVID-19 crisis. Below are Korea’s comments to Working Paper #4.

Korea requests the Secretariat to take the following comments into consideration along with the Joint Submission on Working Paper #4 that Korea participated in as well as Korea’s previous submissions. Korea’s comments herewith are provided to further clarify Korea’s current position. Any comments made by Korea in the ICSID Rule Amendment process (written, oral, and joint) are without prejudice to and do not reflect Korea’s final position as to any relevant issues in the discussions of ISDS reform outside of the context of the ICSID Rules.

(c) testimony in another language shall be interpreted into that procedural language.

(3) In a proceeding with two procedural languages:
(a) documents may be filed and hearings may be conducted in either procedural language, unless the Tribunal orders that a document be filed in both procedural languages or that a hearing be conducted with interpretation into both procedural languages;
(b) documents in another language shall be accompanied by a translation into either procedural language, unless the Tribunal orders translation into both procedural languages;
(c) testimony in another language shall be interpreted into either procedural language, unless the Tribunal orders interpretation into both procedural languages;
(d) the Tribunal and the Secretary-General may communicate in either procedural language; and
(e) all orders, decisions and the Award shall be rendered in both procedural languages, unless the parties agree otherwise.

(4) Translation of only the relevant part of a supporting document is sufficient, unless the Tribunal orders a party to provide a fuller or a complete translation. If the translation is disputed, the Tribunal may order a party to provide a certified translation.

Chapter VII: Costs

Rule 53
Security for Costs

(1) Upon request of a party, the Tribunal may order any party asserting a claim or counterclaim to provide security for costs.

(2) The following procedure shall apply:

* Korea reiterates its concerns on subparagraph (3)(c) and suggests that it be deleted. In Korea’s opinion, consideration of subparagraph (3)(c) significantly contradicts the general object and purpose of security for costs and, in the same vein, the intent behind listing subparagraphs (3)(a) and (3)(b) as possible circumstances for consideration. That is, if and
(a) the request shall specify the circumstances that require security for costs;
(b) the Tribunal shall fix time limits for written and oral submissions on the request, as required;
(c) if a party requests security for costs before the constitution of the Tribunal, the Secretary-General shall fix time limits for written submissions on the request so that the Tribunal may consider the request promptly upon its constitution;
and
(d) the Tribunal shall issue its decision on the request within 30 days after the latest of:
   (i) the constitution of the Tribunal;
   (ii) the last written submission on the request; or
   (iii) the last oral submission on the request.

(3) In determining whether to order a party to provide security for costs, the Tribunal shall consider all relevant circumstances, including:
   (a) that party's ability to comply with an adverse decision on costs;
   (b) that party's willingness to comply with an adverse decision on costs;
   (c) the effect that providing security for costs may have on that party's ability to pursue its claim or counterclaim; and
   (d) the conduct of the parties.

(4) The Tribunal shall consider all evidence adduced in relation to the circumstances in paragraph (3). The existence of third-party funding may form part of such evidence but is not by itself sufficient to justify an order for security for costs.

(5) The Tribunal shall specify any relevant terms in an order to provide security for costs and shall fix a time limit for compliance with the order.

(6) If a party fails to comply with an order to provide security for costs, the Tribunal may suspend the proceeding. If the proceeding is suspended for more than 90 days, the Tribunal may, after consulting with the parties, order the discontinuance of the proceeding.
(7) A party shall promptly disclose any material change in the circumstances upon which the Tribunal ordered security for costs.

(8) The Tribunal may at any time modify or revoke its order on security for costs, on its own initiative or upon a party's request.

Chapter X: Publication, Access to Proceedings and Non-disputing Party Submissions

Rule 67
Submission of Non-disputing Parties

(1) Any person or entity that is not a party to the dispute ("non-disputing party") may apply for permission to file a written submission in the proceeding. The application shall be made in the procedural language(s) used in the proceeding.

(2) In determining whether to permit a non-disputing party submission, the Tribunal shall consider all relevant circumstances, including:

(a) whether the submission would address a matter within the scope of the dispute;
(b) how the submission would assist the Tribunal to determine a factual or legal issue related to the proceeding by bringing a perspective, particular knowledge or insight that is different from that of the parties;
(c) whether the non-disputing party has a significant interest in the proceeding;
(d) the identity, activities, organization and ownership of the non-disputing party, including any direct or indirect affiliation between the non-disputing party, a party or a non-disputing Treaty Party; and
(e) whether any person or entity will provide the non-disputing party with financial or other assistance to file the submission.

(3) The parties shall have the right to make observations on whether a non-disputing party should be permitted to file a written submission in the proceeding and on any conditions for filing or publication of such a submission.

- Korea welcomes inclusion of the requirement that an application for a non-disputing party submission be made in the procedural language(s) used in the proceeding. This will ensure that third-party participation does not unnecessarily increase the procedural burdens of the parties.
- For the sake of completeness, Korea suggests that the second sentence to paragraph (4) also includes reference to the tribunal’s power to decide the language in which the written submission is made, if the application to make a written submission is successful.
