

Name Rajaie Kamal Dajani
Year of Birth 1963
Address 101 Al Shareef Nasir Bin Jamel
Street, Shmeiysani, Amman,
Jordan
Telephone +962 6 55 10 455
Fax +962 6 55 34 688
Email r.dajani@dajani-associates.com

❖ Work Experience

Mr. Dajani is the managing partner of Dajani & Associates – Attorneys & Legal Consultants –. Through-out his 33 years’ journey as Attorney at Law, Mr. Dajani appeared as counsel, litigator and arbitrator in more than one thousand legal disputes (all levels of Jordanian Civil, Criminal and Administrative Courts, Arbitration proceedings in accordance with Jordanian law, Ad hoc and Institutional.

Mr. Dajani was named as an Arbitrator and chair in several arbitration cases in addition to having represented claimants and defendants in many arbitration proceedings.

Being the external legal advisor of several local and international clients, public and private entities, including financial, investment, insurance, industrial and commercial corporations, Mr. Dajani has been delivering wide range of legal opinions.

During the peak of initiating privatization projects in Jordan, Mr. Dajani was heavily involved in several governmental restructuring and privatization projects, such as privatization of Telecommunications Company, Postal Sector, Jordan Aircraft Maintenance Company, Jordan Air Motive Company and Part-Privatization of the Government of Jordan shares in the Arab Potash Company. In addition, Mr. Dajani functioned to the Government of Jordan legal scenarios for the legal implantation and execution of several new projects in different industries, such as AS-SAMRA Waste Water Project and Amman-Zarqa Light Railway Project.

In 2016, His Majesty, King Abdullah II, formed the Royal Committee for Developing the Judiciary and Enhancing the Rule of Law; Mr. Dajani was member of the committee that was mandated with articulating a strategy to address the challenges facing the judicial reform process and improve legislation. The committee presented its findings to the King in February, 2017 proposing changes to 13 laws and the introduction of four new bills and by-laws.

In 2018, he was named by the Cabinet as member of the regulation of Expertise Board at the Ministry of Justice.

❖ Area of Practice

Civil and commercial practice relating primarily to foreign investment, taxation, banking, electricity, insurance, international trade, construction, joint ventures and general corporate matters.

Mr. Dajani is actively engaged in social and community activities, today he chairs the Arab Orphan Committee.

❖ Education

University of Jordan, BA in Law (1985).

University of London, LLM in Commercial Law (1987).