

Ângelo Vasco Matusse

Professional Experience

Profile

No. 97, Geração 8 de Março Str., Maputo

May 27, 1966

(+258) 82 308 1780

angelo.matusse@gmail.com

Skills

- Dynamic, committed, motivated and committed to work;
- Ability to adjust to the organization's policies;
- High sense of responsibility;
- Good interpersonal relationship;
- Ability to work under pressure;
- Ability to work as a team and individually;
- Strong rule-based decision maker;
- Complex problem solver;
- Creative & Innovative;
- Service-focused & Duty bound;
- Results oriented.

IT

- Microsoft Word ————— Excellent
- Microsoft Excel ————— Excellent
- Microsoft Power Point ————— Excellent
- E-mail ————— Excellent
- Internet ————— Excellent

2014 - 2021

African Court on Human and Peoples Rights

Judge

- Hear cases of alleged human rights violations;
- Rule on jurisdiction and admissibility of applications;
- Rule on various motions by the parties' counsels;
- Render judgements on the merits;
- Award damages to the victims and /or their families;
- Issue advisory opinions as requested by eligible entities;
- Review judgements upon request.

2007 - To date

The Office of Public Prosecutor of Mozambique

Deputy Prosecutor-General

- Broad Civil Litigation before the Supreme Court of Mozambique;
- Issue Legal Opinions;
- Supervision over the Specialized Dept. for Civil, Family, Child Advocacy, and Labour Law Affairs;
- Supervision over the International Judicial Cooperation and Mutual Legal Assistance Department;
- Assistance to the Prosecutor-General in all different kinds of prosecutorial matters.

2005

Centre for Human Rights of the University of Pretoria

Visiting lecturer and student supervisor at Masters level within the Human Rights and Democratization Program

- Develop teaching materials;
- Teach students through lectures;
- Set and mark assignments and exams;
- Assess students' work and progress;
- Act as personal tutor to students; Supervise student research.

1995 - 2007

Private Legal Practice

Member of the Mozambique Bar Association

- Acting in defense of the rights and/or interests of individuals, companies and institutions various judicial instances;
- Bringing cases to and arguing them in courts;
- Conduct legal research, prepare applications and appeals, follow up and hearings.

Ângelo Vasco Matusse

Professional Experience

Faculty of Law, Eduardo Mondlane University

Lecturer at Public International Law, Human Rights Law and Transport Law

1992 - To date

- Develop teaching materials;
- Teach students through lectures, seminars, online classes and fieldwork;
- Set and mark assignments and exams;
- Upload learning resources to a student portal;
- Assess students' work and progress;
- Act as personal tutor to students;
- Supervise student's research.

Languages [Written|Speech]

Portuguese	★★★★★ Excellent	★★★★★ Excellent
English	★★★★★ Excellent	★★★★★ Excellent
Russian	★★★★★ Excellent	★★★★★ Excellent
Spanish	★★★★★ Very Fluent	★★★★★ Very Good
French	★★★★★ Appropriate	★★★★★ Appropriate

Conference Papers

- “Evidence before international courts and tribunals” Moscow, 8 –9 November 2018;
- “Judiciary Cooperation in Southern African Development Community (SADC)”. Luanda, Angola – 26 April 2012;
- “Accountability of 1994 Rwanda genocide suspects in Southern Africa: Mozambique perspective”. Johannesburg, South Africa - 1 July 2011;
- “The legal environment for regional integration: an introduction to SADC legal instruments and community law”. Maputo, Mozambique – 23 April 2008.

Books

- The “laboratories” of the Mozambican Municipalisation Process: Are the New Municipalities Meeting Local Needs? ISBN 9072458885 / 9789072458889 / 90-72458-88-5 Publisher: European Parliamentarians for Africa.

Professional Skills & Expertises

Skilful in International Law:

- With over 25 years of experience, both as Judge of the African Court on Human and People’s Rights, as an academic, as well as legal practitioner;

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR):

- Qualified arbitrator (FCI Arb) with expertise in both institutional as well as ad-hoc arbitration Profoundly;
- State representative in arbitration proceedings before ICSID, ICC, and PCA.

Human Rights Litigation:

- As a lawyer on private practice as well as in the capacity of Deputy Prosecutor-General, has been quite extensively exposed to Human Rights Litigation, internally and before international courts and tribunals;

Communication:

- Very communicative. Easily uses the I.T. for communications. Easy fit in group working environment;

Research and Reporting:

- As a current PhD researcher, and as an academic supervisor for Master students, has been privileged in permanently practicing and strengthening research and reporting skills;

References

- Augusto Raul Paulino – Former Attorney-General and Judge of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Mozambique;
- Prof. Doctor Eliseu Mabasso – Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Social Science at the Eduardo Mondlane University.

Ângelo Vasco Matusse

Professional Skills & Expertises

Legal drafting:

- Expertise in drafting contracts; legal opinions; regulations; due diligence reports; documents; project implementation reports, among others.

Leadership:

- Has successfully headed and led the Specialized Department for Civil, Family, Child Advocacy and Labour Law Affairs, as well as the International Cooperation and Mutual Legal Assistance Department of the Attorney-General's Office

Education

2000

International Law Institute,
Washington D.C.

- Professional training in International Procurement.

1997

International Law Institute,
Washington D.C.

- Professional training in Capital Markets.

1994 - 1995

University of London

- Master of Laws (L.L.M.) - (QMW): International Law.

1985 - 1991

Faculty of Law, Baku State University

- Master of Laws (L.L.M.): Law with specialization in Public International Law.

Availability

- Upon request.