Chris McShane Director, UK & Europe

Chris McShane runs our London office and has over 15 years experience advising a range of corporate and government clients on the development of robust media strategies and capabilities.

He was one of Tony Blair's longest-serving advisers, working in Downing Street for over 7 years. He led the Government's successful implementation of a cross-government analysis and response system that remains in place today.

Most recently, he has worked with a wide range of organisations in Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Africa.
