

Norwegian Supreme Court - Decision - HR-2018-2231-J

Court	Norwegian Supreme Court – Decision
Date	2018-11-23
Published	HR-2018-2231-J
Keywords	Hearing in Grand Chamber.
Summary	The Supreme Court in chambers has decided that the hearing of the case concerning the catching of snow crabs on the continental shelf in the protected zone near Svalbard shall be transferred to reinforced court, cf. Section 6, second paragraph, second sentence, cf. Section 5, fourth paragraph of the Courts of Justice Act.
Proceedings	Øst-Finnmark District Court TOSFI-2017-57396 – Hålogaland Court of Appeal LH-2017-144441 – The Supreme Court HR-2018-2231-S, (case no. 18-064307STR-HRET), criminal case, appeal against verdict.
Parties	I. A (Attorney Hallvard Østgård) v. the Prosecuting Authority (Chief Public Prosecutor Lars Fause). II. SIA North Star LTD (Attorney Hallvard Østgård) v. the Prosecuting Authority (Chief Public Prosecutor Lars Fause).
Author	Justice Øie.
Last updated	2018-12-06

On 23 November 2018, pursuant to Section 6 of the Courts of Justice Act Justice Øie [...] handed down the following

DECISION:

The Supreme Court in chambers decided on 22 November 2018 that the case shall be transferred to reinforced court with the delimitation of the proceedings resulting from the Supreme Court Appeals Selection Committee's referral decision of 4 June 2018 [HR-2018-1028-U]¹, cf. Section 6, second paragraph, second sentence, cf. Section 5, fourth paragraph of the Courts of Justice Act.

The case shall be heard in the Grand Chamber, cf. Section 6, second paragraph, third sentence of the Courts of Justice Act.

¹ Added by Lovdata.