

[...]

Now then, in view of the complaint under analysis and the accompanying evidence, based on articles 61, section XIV and 179, of the Amparo Law, the aforementioned complaint is DISMISSED AS EXTEMPORARY filed by ***** **

 and *****
 , against

The final judgment of September nine, two thousand nineteen, issued by the Secretary of the Third Unitary Court in Civil, Administrative and Specialized in Antitrust, Broadcasting and Telecommunications Matters of the First Circuit, acting as Magistrate, in the proceedings of the civil appeal 898/2017-III and its accumulated 899/2017-IV, derived from the Ordinary Civil lawsuit number 200/2016, followed by the now complainant party, against *****

*****.

The untimeliness of the amparo proceeding derives from the fact that the lawsuit was filed outside the term established by law, since the contested judgment was notified by means of an instructive letter on September 10, two thousand nineteen and became effective the following business day, that is to say, on the eleventh of the same month and year; on the other hand, the amparo lawsuit was filed before the Office of the Unitary Tribunal responsible, on October 10 of the current year, on the other hand, the amparo lawsuit was filed before the Office of the aforementioned Unitary Tribunal responsible, on October 10 of the current year, as evidenced by the date stamp that appears on the front of the first page and the certification required by Article 178 of the Law of Amparo, as well as by the certification required by Article 178 of the Law of Amparo, which elapsed from September twelfth to October third of the present year. of the present year and, within that period, the days of September fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-eight and twenty-nine of September of the year in question, as they are non-business days, in accordance with the provisions of the Amparo Law and 163 of the Organic Law of the Judiciary of the Federation, which implies that the said amparo lawsuit was filed out of the term indicated by the by the aforementioned Amparo Law.

It is not an obstacle to the foregoing, that the complaining party refers that the challenged judgment was notified by list of this Collegiate Tribunal on the nineteenth of September, since, as it has been seen, it was notified in person by the responsible authority and of the challenged act, and not by the federal government.

Communicate the above to the responsible authority.

In the event that the claimant had indicated an address to hear and receive notifications within the jurisdiction of this Court for the effects of article 27, section 1, of the Amparo Law and in accordance with article 305 of the Amparo Code. of the Federal Code of Civil Procedures of supplementary application to the law of the matter; and under the same premise, that is to say, in case of having requested it, if so requested, by those authorized to hear and receive notifications, to take possession of the files and to collect documents from the persons documents to the persons mentioned and only in broad terms of Article 12 of the Amparo Law to the professionals that have registered their professional license, which in due time will be located in the Computerized System for the Single Registry of Legal Professionals before the Circuit Courts and District Courts, that is, when they come to exercise their mandate in this matter.

As of this moment, in terms of article 21, third paragraph, of the Federal Law invoked, non-working days and hours are enabled for the commissioned clerk to serve, during a such extraordinary time, the personal notification that may be ordered, if so deemed necessary; or, alternatively, if in the event that upon being constituted at the respective address, it is not certain and it is informed that the person sought may be notified at a different address and this address is provided, the clerk of the court is empowered to serve the ordered notification at the said address, and shall record in any situation the reason for the corresponding reason in any situation.