The ICSID Caseload – Statistics

(Issue 2022-2)

This issue of the ICSID Caseload – Statistics updates the profile of the ICSID caseload, historically and for the Fiscal Year 2022 (FY2022). It is based on cases registered or administered by ICSID as of June 30, 2022.

This report illustrates: the number of cases registered under the ICSID Convention and Additional Facility Rules; the number of cases administered by ICSID; the basis of consent invoked for ICSID jurisdiction; the geographic distribution of ICSID cases by the State party to the dispute;¹ and the economic sectors involved in ICSID disputes.² It also contains data on outcomes in ICSID arbitration and conciliation proceedings, including further information on disputes decided by arbitral tribunals, data on discontinued ICSID arbitration proceedings, and outcomes to date in annulment proceedings under the ICSID Convention. The nationalities, geographic origins and gender of arbitrators, conciliators and ad hoc committee members appointed in ICSID cases are also featured.

The Secretariat will continue to publish the ICSID Caseload – Statistics on a bi-annual basis and welcomes any comments or suggestions by email at ICSIDsecretariat@worldbank.org.

The content of this publication may be reproduced for educational use only with copyright acknowledgement to the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes.

¹ The classification of the geographic regions is based on the World Bank's regional system, available at <https://www.worldbank.org/en/where-we-work>, and also includes World Bank donor countries.

² The economic sector classification is based on the World Bank's sector codes, available at <https://projects.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/project-sector>.

3. Cases Administered by the ICSID Secretariat under the ICSID Convention, the Additional Facility Rules and Other Rules

The ICSID Secretariat offers administrative support and facilities in State-State and investor-State proceedings conducted under non-ICSID rules. Among the State-State cases administered by ICSID are the Southern Bluefin Tuna case (Australia and New Zealand v. Japan), an expert determination proceeding under the Indus Waters Treaty of 1960, and an arbitration under the Softwood Lumber Agreement of 2006 (United States v. Canada).

The Centre also frequently provides administrative assistance to investor-State arbitrations under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, free trade agreements and other ad hoc dispute settlement provisions. The Centre's services in these proceedings range from support with the organization of hearings to comprehensive administrative services comparable to those provided in ICSID cases. The Secretariat also acts as appointing authority, and decides proposals for disqualification of arbitrators, upon request. In addition to administering UNCITRAL arbitrations, ICSID has also assisted with the organization of hearings in arbitration proceedings conducted under the auspices of the ICC, LCIA, PCA, SCC, and other institutions.

ICSID is the world's leading institution devoted to international investment dispute settlement. It has extensive experience in this field, having administered the majority of all international investment cases. States have agreed on ICSID as a forum for investor-State dispute settlement in most international investment treaties and in numerous investment laws and contracts.

ICSID was established in 1966 by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States (the ICSID Convention). The ICSID Convention is a multilateral treaty formulated by the Executive Directors of the World Bank to further the Bank's objective of promoting international investment. ICSID is an independent, depoliticized and effective dispute-settlement institution. Its availability to investors and States helps to promote international investment by providing confidence in the dispute resolution process. It is also available for State-State disputes under investment treaties and free trade agreements, and as an administrative registry.
