International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

September 1, 1983

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to Administrative and Financial Regulation 4(4), I hereby submit to the Administrative Council for its approval the Annual Report on the operation of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes required by Article 6(1)(g) of the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States. This Seventeenth Annual Report covers the fiscal year July 1, 1982 to June 30, 1983.

The report includes the audited financial statements of the Centre, presented pursuant to Administrative and Financial Regulation 18.

Sincerely yours,

H. Golsong
Secretary-General

Mr. A. W. Clausen
Chairman
Administrative Council
International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

Introduction by the Secretary-General

This is the third annual report I have the honor to submit to the Administrative Council. It is at the same time my last report.

The Administrative Council entrusted me, in 1980, with the role of Secretary-General for the regular period of six years. Having recently joined a private law firm in Washington, D.C., I have decided to resign as Secretary-General as of September 30, 1983.

During the three years of my responsibilities at ICSID, I have witnessed an increased significance of ICSID as a dispute settlement forum. Together with my colleagues I have tried, to the best of my abilities, to favor such a development by appropriate promotional activities and by advice to governments and investors alike as to the structure and rules of the Centre.

I acted in this direction not only because of my current official association with ICSID, but also because I am personally convinced that ICSID offers the most appropriate balanced and effective framework for dispute settlement on investments. And as the present economic situation world-wide will certainly enhance the importance of investment abroad, so will ICSID gain in practical importance.

As indicated in this report, the number of disputes submitted to ICSID for settlement has significantly increased during the last year. Yet, one should not measure the effectiveness and the efficiency of ICSID only by the number of cases registered or decided upon. Much more important is the incentive for amicable settlement provoked by ICSID dispute settlement clauses or the mere filing of a request for settlement.

ICSID membership has continued to grow in FY1983. Most notable was the ratification of the ICSID Convention by Paraguay, the first country from the Latin American region to join ICSID. I am confident that other countries in that region will soon follow. I have also discussed the advantages of ICSID with representatives of the People's Republic of China.

I remain devoted to conciliation and arbitration, in particular within ICSID, as a means of dispute settlement, and hope to be able to support the goals of the ICSID Convention in other capacities.

Membership

On January 7, 1983, Paraguay deposited its instrument of ratification and became the first Latin American State to adhere to the Convention. On June 22, 1983, Israel deposited its instrument of ratification, bringing the number of Contracting States to 83. The number of Signatory States stands at 88. A complete list of Contracting States and other Signatories of the Convention appears in Annex 1.

Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Administrative Council

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Administrative Council was held on September 8, 1982, in Toronto, Canada, in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Board of Governors of the World Bank. At this meeting the Council approved the Sixteenth Annual Report on the operation of the Centre and the budget for Fiscal Year 1983. The resolutions are reproduced in Annex 5.

Disputes Submitted to the Centre¹

During the past fiscal year three requests for the institution of arbitration proceedings and one request for the institution of conciliation proceedings were registered by the Secretary-

¹ Annex 6 to the Fifteenth Annual Report provides procedural data on all arbitration cases brought before the Centre up to June 30, 1981.

On March 13, 1983, proceedings are suspended at the request of SEDITEX. On June 20, 1983, the Centre receives a request from SEDITEX for termination of the proceedings.

Promotional Activities

The Centre has published a full collection of bilateral investment promotion and protection treaties (see Annex 4).

The Secretary-General participated in and made presentations on ICSID at the following meetings:

- October 1982, New Delhi, International Bar Association;
- December 1982, Madrid, Hispanic-American Seminar on international commercial arbitration sponsored by the Superior Counsel of the Spanish Official Chambers of Commerce, Industry and Navigation and the Inter-American Development Bank;
- February 1983, Cologne, German Federation of Industries;
- May 1983, New York, Law and Business Institute.

The Centre has published two separate booklets containing the Regulations and Rules pertaining to arbitration and conciliation respectively, with relevant excerpts from the Administrative and Financial Regulations and from the Institution Rules. The booklets do not include the Notes as contained in ICSID/4/Rev. 1.

The Centre has been approached by governments and potential investors alike for advice in drafting dispute settlement clauses and connected changes in national law. ICSID is also advising non-Contracting States on questions which need to be resolved for the purposes of signature and ratification of the Convention.

In January 1983, ICSID issued its first Newsletter, to update the information contained in the Annual Report.

Regulations and Rules

Pursuant to Administrative and Financial Regulation 13(1) the Secretary-General has, with the approval of the Chairman, on April 1, 1983, increased the daily fees of conciliators and arbitrators to SDR600. The fees will continue to be payable in US dollars. The US dollar equivalent of any amount in SDR due in respect of any calendar quarter will be determined as of the first day of such quarter as published by the International Monetary Fund.

ICSID as Designating Authority for non-ICSID Arbitration

The Secretary-General has accepted to act as designating authority for the third arbitrator in ad hoc arbitration proceedings provided for mainly in agreements on borrowing on the Euro-currency market.

Finance

The Financial Statements of the Centre for Fiscal Year 1983 are set forth in Annex 6. The expenditures of the Centre were again covered entirely by the services and facilities made available by the World Bank free of charge pursuant to the Memorandum of Administrative Arrangements concluded between the Bank and the Centre in February 1967,² and by income from the sale of publications. Thus it was not necessary to assess any excess expenditures to Contracting States pursuant to Article 17 of the Convention.

The Centre's expenses which are attributable to the pending arbitration proceedings are borne by the parties in accordance with the Centre's Administrative and Financial Regulations. In accordance with these Regulations, the Secretary-General calls on the parties from time to time to make advance deposits to defray the expenses of the proceedings.

²The text of which is set forth in Annex 5 of the First Annual Report, in relation to AC(IM)RES/3.

¹The Convention was signed on behalf of the Republic of China on January 13, 1966, and ratified on December 10, 1968. At its Fourteenth Annual Meeting on October 2, 1980, the Administrative Council considered a communication received from the People's Republic of China, decided that the Republic of China be removed from the list of Contracting States and noted that, pending study by the Government of the People's Republic of the possibility of becoming a party to the Convention, China is not a Contracting State.

²Denmark excluded, by a notification received on May 15, 1968, the Faroe Islands; by a notification received on October 30, 1968, Denmark extended the application of the Convention to the Faroe Islands as of January 1, 1969.

³Germany declared, on depositing its instrument of ratification, that the Convention would also apply to the Land Berlin.

The Centre does not have resources of its own. The reported expenditures on behalf of the Centre represent the value of the services provided by the Bank and include only those amounts identified by the Bank as being directly related to the Centre, and, accordingly, do not include any indirect or overhead costs of the Bank. The reported contributions of $246,929 and $238,268 in 1983 and 1982, respectively, are equal to the value of services provided by the Bank, less reimbursements by the Centre from its sale of publications and registration fees. The expenditures made on behalf of the Centre by the Bank are shown below:

	For the year ended June 30,
	1983	1982
Staff personal services	$181,658	$159,229
Contractual services, travel, communications and miscellaneous	48,119	43,226
Printing	29,152	40,357
	$258,929	$242,812
Less: Reimbursements by Centre from sale of publications and registration fees	12,000	4,544
Total	$246,929	$238,268

The Centre's expenses which are attributable to arbitration proceedings are borne by the parties in accordance with the Centre's Administrative and Financial Regulations. In accordance with these Regulations, the Secretary-General calls on the parties to make advance deposits with the Centre from time to time to defray these expenses. The cash balances reflected in the statement of composition of fund balance represent advances from parties to proceedings and amounts due to the Bank.

Washington, D.C. 20433

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of composition of fund balance and the related statement of changes in fund balance present fairly the composition of fund balance of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes for the years ended June 30, 1983 and 1982, and the changes in fund balance for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year and in accordance with the Administrative Arrangements between the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes, as discussed in the Note to the accompanying statements. Our examinations of these statements were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.
